Terms and Conditions

General: Adventure College Limited undertakes to transport divers/passengers to and from the agreed site(s), to deploy and recover safely divers from the water and to provide standard safety and back-up facilities. Adventure College Limited does not undertake to provide advice planning or recommendations relating to scuba diving practices. It is the individual responsibility of divers to dive within the limits of their own training and experience. Reference to harbour in the pricing details refers to Hayling Ferry Pontoon, Langstone Harbour.

Booking: The vessel is not considered booked until the completed Booking Form and agreed deposit has been received. Provisional bookings by phone, fax or e-mail will be held for seven days pending receipt of the Booking Form and deposit. Every person making a booking for or on behalf of a club or group warrants and confirms that he/she has the authority of that individual(s) and that each person agrees to be bound by these conditions. It is the responsibility of the charterer to ensure that all members of the group are familiar with the terms and conditions.

Deposit: The deposit, as detailed on the booking form, will be paid in full at the time of booking. Payment may be made in cash or debit card, by cheque made payable to Adventure College Ltd, by Bank Transfer to 60 24 77 A/C No. 18905064 or Credit card (subject to 2.5 % handling charge).

Cancellation policy: In the event of a customer cancellation Adventure College Limited will make every effort to resell the charter and if able to do so will refund money paid less any expenses incurred. If we are unable to resell the charter the following will apply:

Up to ten weeks prior to charter	full refund
Four to ten weeks prior to charter	loss of deposit
Less than four weeks	no refund

If owing to circumstances beyond the control of Adventure College Limited and Adventure College Limited cancels the charter, a full refund will be given.

Payment of balance: It is the charterers responsibility to ensure that the balance, as detailed on the booking form, is paid in full, four weeks prior to the day of the charter. Payment may be made in cash or debit card, by cheque made payable to Adventure College Ltd, by Bank Transfer to 60 24 77 A/C No. 18905064 or Credit card (subject to 2.5 % handling charge)

Insurance: Adventure College Limited is fully insured for bodily injury or accident to passengers on board to a maximum of £3,000,000 (three million pounds sterling). Our insurance does not cover charterers who are away from the vessel or its tender whilst engaged in diving or other water sports or activities. Adventure College Limited cannot accept liability for loss or damage to personal property including diving equipment and that equipment left on the boat overnight is at the owner's risk.

Safety: The ultimate decision regarding the safety of the vessel, its crew and those on board rests with the Skipper. The final decision relation to the suitability of the weather for sailing or diving operations will be made by the skipper, whose decision is final. The skipper may cancel or amend the trip at any time if he believes the conditions are, or are likely to become unsuitable for the proposed charter.

Diving charters: The charterer shall provide sufficient instructors and/or other competent persons to supervise all diving activities and the use of diving equipment and shall be fully responsible therefore. Adventure College Limited and its crew shall not be responsible for any accident or injury caused to any person or persons arising out of diving or use of any equipment. It is the charterers responsibility to ensure that the dive sites chosen by them are suitable for the members of their group given their current level of training, experience and fitness. The Charter Party shall be responsible for ensuring compliance with all matters arising from the Merchant Shipping Act, the Protection of Wrecks Act and any legislation regarding the laws of salvage.

Changes to proposed Itinerary: Adventure College Limited reserves the right to amend the scheduled charter in any way they consider appropriate due to adverse weather or any other conditions. They also reserve the right to alter prices in accordance with any major changes in cost which may occur between the time of booking and the time of departure. In the case of weekend bookings which have a lower threshold of acceptable weather conditions, e.g. the Moldavia or Fort Yale (or any other site which Adventure College may from time to time designate), Adventure College Limited reserve the right to amend the dive site to an alternative one closer to Langstone Harbour, such alternative site being not less than a depth of 25m.
